Greece is my second home, and while I wasn't born there every time I return it feels like I am returning to see family. The hospitality of the Greek people is so warm that you're guaranteed to be welcomed with open arms and quite often with a massive feast filled with sensational food and lively festivities. While I tend to return to some of my favourite spots each year I also go and explore different islands and areas of the mainland and feel that the options for travelling through Greece are endless.

While it may sound clichéd I truly believe that Greece is a destination that will not just please, but excite every type of traveller. It offers beautiful waterways with the ability to swim, snorkel or just relax and history and monuments with amazing stories that are best experienced first hand with a local guide.

At Greece Med Travel we can assist you no matter your budget or time schedule and hope that Greece becomes your second home in years to come.

Greece General Information

Introduction

Because of its geographical position, Greece was a crossroad of civilisations that have left their traces everywhere. Amazing architecture, unique daily life, local customs and all forms of popular art can be found in the various regions of the country. The visitor can come into contact with Greek history from the Paleolithic Era to the Roman Period in the hundreds of archaeological sites, as well as in the archaeological museums and collections that are scattered throughout the country.

Population

Greece's population was estimated to be approx. 11 million

Time Zone

Greece is 2 hours ahead of Greenwich Mean Time and daylight saving is during European Summer. During Australian Summer Athens is approximately 9 hours ahead, while in winter, Australia is only 7 hours ahead.

Official Language

Greek is the official language, but English is becoming more widely spoken, especially in the main cities and towns by the younger generations.

Currency

The currency of Greece is the Euro (EU). Travellers cheques in Euros, Australian Dollars and US Dollars are all accepted and Visa, MasterCard, Diners and American Express are all widely accepted.

Visas

Australian and NZ passport holders do not require a visa for Greece, only a valid passport is necessary with at least 6 months remaining validity.

Electricity

Greece's current electrical system is 240V. Two pronged cylindrical round adapter plugs are required.

Climate

Greece experiences a Mediterranean climate with mild winters and warm dry summers. However this also varies between regions due to the sea. Light cotton clothing along with hats and sunglasses is recommended during the warmer months, while a warm jacket may be required during the cooler months. Best time to visit Greek islands is April to October. July and August are very busy with a large number of European tourists.

Average Monthly Temperatures (Degrees Celsius):

Average Temps		Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec
Athens	Low	6	6	7	10	14	19	21	21	18	14	10	8
	High	13	13	16	20	26	31	33	33	29	23	18	14

Food

Greek cuisine has been considered a traditional aspect of Greek society throughout approx 4000 years of history. It is typical of Mediterranean cuisine, using the fresh produce grown in each region, including the widespread use of olives and olive oil and the fresh seafood of the coastal waters and islands. Most traditional tavernas in Athens are located in the Plaka (Old) district and this is a good place to enjoy a Yeros (a meat dish served with a sauce on pita bread) and Ouzo (the traditional drink made from Anise). There is food to suit all tastes, from vegetarians to meat eaters and seafood lovers.

Getting There

By Air: Qatar, Emirates, Singapore, Etihad fly from most major Australian cities to Athens several times a week and other airlines have connections via European cities.

By Sea: Italy-Greece: There are daily overnight ferries from Bari and Ancona in Italy to Patra (200km west of Athens), as well as ferries from Brindisi and Venice, but these are not daily. There are no ferries from Italy to Athens.

Turkey-Greece: There are daily ferries between the months of April to October from Kusadasi in Turkey to Samos Island, from Bodrum in Turkey to Kos Island and from Marmaris in Turkey to Rhodes Island. There is no direct service, Athens to Istanbul or vice versa.

Athens-Greek islands: Most services by sea from Greek islands land at Piraeus Port, about 10km from Athens.

Getting Around

Train services in Greece mainly run between Athens and Thessaloniki and are limited elsewhere. Buses connect main cities and villages on the mainland. Car hire is suitable to get around mainland Greece, but parking and navigation around main cities can be quite tricky at times.

In terms of travel to the Greek Islands, there are limited ferry departures from mid-October to mid-April. During high season there are regular services from Piraeus Port to the main islands but there are not daily services connecting each island. Not all islands are connected by direct ferry. Local buses are available on most islands, but generally they only run between the main stops and not all hotels can be accessed by bus. Taxis are also very limited hence transfers are highly recommended.

There are options of direct flights from

Athens to main cities and islands, but there are very limited flight connections between the islands.

Accommodation

Accommodation in Greece is diverse allowing for the provision of services to any taste or budget, from luxury to backpacker. Generally it is essential to pre-book accommodation for a hassle free holiday as many hours can be spent searching during high season. In most popular locations during summer, only limited accommodation is available. We recommend pre booking to secure accommodation in a good location and affordable price to avoid disappointment.

Things To Do

Athens: The Capital city and site of the 2004 Olympics, Athens is a vibrant bustling metropolis. The Acropolis stands proud and tall, dominating the centre of Athens and encompassing the Parthenon, Erechtheion and Temple of Athena Nike. For history buffs; the ancient treasures of Greece through the ages can also be found in the Archeological Museum, as well as Hadrian's Arch and the Temple of Olympian Zeus. The Plaka District has always been a favourite with many tourists due to its old world charm and marbled buildings. Other sites around Athens include Constitution Square in Syntagma, which is the city's main square surrounded by offices, cafes, shopping and the House of Parliament (formally the Royal Palace), watch the changing of the Guards as well as visiting the Monument of the Unknown Soldier.

Mainland Greece: Favoured sites for travellers include: Corinth, Mycenae, Epidaurus (famous theatre), Naflpio, Olympia (birthplace of the Olympic Games), Delphi (mountain home of the Oracle), and Kalambaka (the magnificent Meteora Monasteries).

Islands: The Greek Islands are separated into groups:

The Saronics: A small group of islands located close to Athens. Aegina, Poros and Hydra are the most popular of this group of Islands. Hydra is most favoured due to its distinctive architecture, its ruggedness and the various colours in the landscapes.

Cyclades: The most popular group of Islands, most famous for white washed buildings and their beaches. Mykonos, Paros, Naxos, Ios and Santorini are the most visited islands within this particular group. Santorini is perhaps one of the most famous of all of the Greek Islands, mostly for its romantic sunsets over the volcano and the narrow streets and famous restaurants. Mykonos is generally known for its beautiful windmills, but it also boasts the charm of many nightclubs, tiny roadside chapels, and breathtaking views from all over the island.

Crete: Heraklion, the Capital of Crete is best known for its close proximity to the famous ruins of Knossos; the mythical Labyrinth palace of the Minoan ruler King Minos.

Dodecanese: The easternmost of the Greek islands, comprise of twelve main islands. Rhodes is the most popular due to the constant sunshine, stunning beaches and fascinating history. Kos, best known as the birthplace of Hippocrates and Patmos is famous for its rocky cliffs and as the place where St John spent his time in exile, most particularly, it is the place in which he wrote his book, "Apocalypse". It also holds an awe-inspiring monastery at the very top of the Island.

Ionian: These islands are on the western side of Greece, the main islands of which include Corfu, Paxi, Lefkas, Kefalonia, Ithaca and Zakynthos.

Sporades: These islands lie in between the Saronics and the Cyclades and mainly include Skiathos, Skopelos, Allonissos and Skyros. These islands are accessible by air when flying Athens to Skiathos. The 2008 hit movie Mamma Mia was filmed on Skopelos.

An organised holiday to Greece will leave you with precious memories for the rest of your life. You may face unexpected changes, delays or even an additional cost if you are not prepared. Please read the information below as we highlight important facts and answers to common questions.

Hotels in Greece

Booking a hotel in Greece is the easy part. It is the finding and choosing prior to the booking that can take hours, even days of researching. Even when you have found what you think looks like the perfect hotel, how do you know that it is the right one for your needs? Fortunately, it is possible to choose hotels with the minimum of fuss by using a knowledgeably travel agent.

Our recommended hotels are conveniently located, well priced, their staff provide friendly and helpful service and understand the needs of our clientele. That is why in our view, they are the best value for money hotels. By selecting one of our hotels you can rest assured that you will be staying at a hotel that many of our previous clients have used and were happy with. Talk to our team and we will recommend a hotel that meets your budget and expectations. We have a wide range of hotels for you to choose from, but have selected for the brochure only a few in each category due to space limitations. Should you wish to book a hotel that is not listed in the brochure please do not hesitate to contact us, as we are able to book hundreds of hotels throughout Greece.

Categories

There is no official star rating classification in Greece. Greek National Tourist Organization classifies hotels into six categories: "L" (deluxe), A, "B", "C", "D", "E". In general as hotels vary significantly in quality, size, facilities and style, classification is based on room sizes, number of restaurants or other facilities for example parking. A-class hotels are usually shown as 4 star, B as 3 or 4 star, C as 3 and D as 2 but this is not a rule. The higher category does not always guarantee that the hotel is better. It is common to find a 4 star hotel which can be considered as 2 or 3 star only by Australians. Similar category hotels vary greatly between destinations especially on the islands.

Prices

Whether you are looking for a great deal, a great location or a traditional house, we have made the hotel selection process easier for you. Avoid being swayed by the belief that highly priced hotels are the more luxurious ones or that the special deals online have to be booked instantly. This isn't always the case. Moreover, budget prices can sometimes come with surprises or nasty additional costs attached that you were not expecting. Take transport into consideration. The hotel might be a bargain but the transport into the city or to the tourist sites might be prohibitive.

Locations

The hoteliers, as well as many online booking engines, use loose terms to describe hotel locations. Words commonly used are: access to transport, close to attractions or town, near the beach etc. It is important that some attractions may be suitable for some and not for the others. Close to town may mean next to the nightclubs and near the beach may be a holiday resort in remote location. Clients can get a surprise on arrival when they realise that that the only way to access the idyllic hotel is by donkey trail or that they have to take a taxi each time they want to have dinner in a restaurant other than the one at the hotel. Descriptions about hotel locations are commonly vague, and as there are usually no street names or signs on the islands, it is almost impossible to locate the exact location or real walking distance on a map. Distances described on the website are often inaccurate.

Greek Ferries

The ferry system which connects various Greek islands is generally complicated with itineraries constantly changing or non-existing. Ferries are usually privately owned by various companies. There is no one centralised system which displays schedules and prices for all. Although there have been improvements over the past few years, ferry timetables and scheduled changes are common and take place even at the last minute. If you book them yourself, you may find only when you arrive at port that your ferry has been cancelled. Ferry tickets are paper printed tickets, not yet electronic so you may have to waste time to find a place to collect them if booked online. Some routes tend to fill up very quickly and tickets may be sold out in advance. Some islands may only offer one connection per day or two or three times per week. For this reason inside knowledge and a local representative that can make last minute changes is of the utmost importance.

There are two main types of ferries operating in Greece:

- Ferries are the largest and slowest vessels. Basic conventional ferries are the cheapest option. Some may have deck space in open air or semi enclosed decks. Most of them offer economy seats, airplane type seats and some may have two to four bedded cabins for night trips. They usually have indoor bars and food outlets.
- Fast Ferries are high speed ferries usually modern, quick and more comfortable. They vary in size from large vessels similar to cruise boats, to a smaller vessels such as high-speed catamarans, flying dolphins or Hydrofoils, which usually take only a few hundred passengers. Fast ferries may offer aircraft type seats, Business and VIP category seats, which vary in size and location on the vessel. The Business and VIP area offers larger seats, tables and better facilities.

Transfers in Greece

We recommend to pre-book all transfers. In Greece a regular taxi can be of any size, make, model or year and is allowed to take other passengers along the way, charging each party a separate fare. The drivers do not often speak English, are not always familiar with hotels and are not required to carry maps. Share taxi system means that taxi drivers asks passengers where they wish to travel to before letting them in and can refuse a fare if the ride is too short or not convenient for them. All our transfers in Athens are private air conditioned Mercedes Benz E200/E300 with uniformed driver. You will be whisked off to your hotel, instead of having to stand in long taxi queues. As each car can take only three passengers, we also offer transfers by a Mercedes Vito minivan for four to seven passengers. Public transport particular on the islands is very limited with buses usually only operating between main towns and some popular beaches. Most travellers are not aware that finding a taxi on some islands can be as difficult as winning the lotto! There may be just one taxi on an island even though there are thousands of people there. For example Kastelorizo & Folegandros have one taxi only and Mykonos has 31. There is no street names or signs on most of the islands. Most places it is not possible to hail a taxi from the street. Most hotels in Santorini which are located on the cliff do not have road access, which means car transportation can only be provided to the end of the main road. There are only 39 licenced taxis on the island. However, if you book transfers with us the vehicle will be waiting for you and we will communicate with hotel so the porter can assist with luggage. On most islands we offer possibility for private or share transfer.

Greece Hotel Stayover Tax

Please note that Greek Government announced new "stayover tax". This tax will be imposed as of 1 January 2018, to hotels and furnished rooms/apartments and calculated based on the number of overnight stays and the category of the accommodation unit, ranging from 50 cents to 4 euros per room.

- One- and two-star hotels will be charged 0.50 euros,
- Three-star hotels 1.50 euros
- Four-star hotels 3.00 euros
- Five-star hotels 4.00 euros per room per night

Please note that this tax must be paid by the Guests directly to the hotel upon check out.

Best Location

Old quarter of Athens called Plaka is located just beneath Acropolis and full of traditional restaurants, tavernas, shops is the best place to stay. Hotels within the area or just short walking distance in area of Monastiriaki and Thission are also recommended. Most historical sites are within walking distance to Plaka hence no transportation is required. Hotels around Omonia and especially those on small back streets are usually cheaper and often look attractive online but some places can be very busy and noisy and should be reconsidered especially by single or female travellers.

Recommended Stay

As Athens offer numerous sites to visit a minimum 2 night stay is required for a basic sightseeing which usually includes Acropolis, Plaka and the museum. The 3 night stay is recommended as it gives opportunity to enjoy the other sites, traditional markets, churches and soak the unique local atmosphere of the city. The day trips out of town are also recommend to see nearby places such as: Saranic Islands, Cape Sounion, Corinth or even Delphi.

Must See

Acropolis and the Acropolis Museum, Olympic Stadium, Zeus Temple and Monuments of Unknown Soldiers on Constitution Square where the traditional dressed guards stand. Those places are located easy walking distance and can be explored on foot or by participating in one of the half day city tours on offer. Visit to shops, restaurants and local tavernas in the old quarter of town beneath Acropolis commonly known as Plaka area, is also a must.

If time permits

Visit Athens Archaeological Museum, Roman Agora, Temple of Hephaestus, Philopappos Hill and Areopagus. For church lovers we recommend Church of Kapnikarea, Orthodox Metropolitan Church and Kaisariani Monastery. Our programs are basically combinations of services such as accommodation, day tours or multi day coach tours and in some cases cruises or island stays are included within those package. They are suitable for individual travellers who are looking for personal stay. All our programs incorporate our special deals with selected hotels, transfer and ferry companies and are great for those looking for economical and easy way to arrange complicated Greek itinerary with one operator who will look after all aspects of the trip. Over the next number of pages (pages 26 to 65) you will find a variety of programs together with numerous options for you to choose from.

FLEXIBLE Flexible Greece Programs

For those interested to visit major archaeological sites on the mainland as well as some of the Greek Islands we offer flexible programs. We call them flexible as the duration, standard of accommodation or even places of visit can be changed. Most operate on a daily basis although the sequence of itineraries may vary depending on arrival day as the mainland coach tours do not operate daily. If your idea of a Greek holiday revolves around seeing the islands, then we recommend Flexible Island Hopping programs, Island Hopping Passes or FlexiPasses that combine various islands. Most of those operate daily.

COMPREHENSIVE Comprehensive Programs

Programs to highlight the most popular islands, named after the Greek Gods. These itineraries include Athens stay as well as visits to islands of Rhodes, Crete, Santorini and Mykonos (to all of them or some). With the package, not only do you get to stay on these legendary islands, and ferries and transfers are taken care of but we have also included local tours. Our guides are locals who live and work on the islands and know them intimately. Of course we also use best value hotels on each island so that we can offer a great holiday at a great price. Those programs are also flexible as extra nights can be added and/or hotels changed.

ISLAND HOPPING Island Hopping Passes

Island hopping is visiting a selection of the islands using local ferries. We offer two main types of Island hopping options, which offer different inclusions and accommodation. Island Hopping Passes allow visits to preselected islands and set the amount of nights on each. Transfers on the island are optional extras. The Flexi Passes allow travellers to select any island and are costed based on total number of night regardless of island visited.

CRUISE Cruises & Sailing Programs

Mediterranean cruises are the easy way to see several destination and islands in relatively short period of time. We offer cruises only and packages with accommodation using large vessels, smaller yacht style boats and even a chat charter options. We have also created some itineraries that let you cruise or yacht as well as stay a few nights on the island so you can experience both.

2 COUNTRIES From Greece to Turkey Programs

For travellers who wish to experience both countries Greece and Turkey, we offer a selection of packages that combine various tours of Turkey with ferries to or from Greece, as well as island hopping, flights and cruise options. (page 60 to 63) Most of the Greece parts of those itineraries are flexible and hotels, duration of even islands visited can be amended. Similar programs that start in Turkey and finish in Greece can be found in our Turkey 2017 brochure.

Transfers at no extra charge

Our transfer services in Athens are available 24 hours a day with no surcharge for night transfers. If you book additional accommodation with us before or after a package which has transfers in its inclusions, then these will still be provided to you at no additional cost.

Tailor-Made Itineraries

We are very good at many things but we excel at flexibility. If you would like a different choice of islands, more time or less time in certain cities and/or islands or if you would like more expensive, less expensive, more central, boutique or special category hotels on either one island or all of them we will arrange it.

Experience the magic of the Greek islands and take one of our Island Hopping Pass! Greek islands unlike anywhere else in the world give you mix of beauty, atmosphere, nightlife, food, history, sun and the sea. Island hopping is visiting a selection of the islands using local ferries. Booking an Island Hopping Pass with us provides you with peace of mind. We take care of Greece's fickle ferry system, allowing you to hop between the Islands with a minimum of fuss. Your ferry tickets are pre-booked and delivered to your hotel room. There is no battle for accommodation, your hotel reservation is confirmed, even at the peak of the season. We let you add extra nights or amend hotels listed should you prefer to upgrade and stay somewhere else. We offer two main type of Island hopping packages with different inclusions and accommodation.

- Passes 1-11: Island hopping passes with preselected islands and set amount of nights on each. Hotels are confirmed at the time of booking, hence you know exactly where you will stay and the facilities that you will be able to enjoy at your hotels. Detailed description of most hotels can be found on relevant island pages. Transfers on the island are optional extras.
- Flexible Island Hopping Passes: are based on total number of nights regardless of island visited. Transfers on the islands are included. Hotel names are provided on arrival. (Page 54)

Recommended Stay

Generally speaking most of the small Greek islands can be explored in a few days, most islands although require a minimum 3 or 4 night stay in order to see the highlights. Without rush you can enjoy several islands in just a couple of weeks.

Which Pass to Choose

Each island is different and unique in its own way. As such it is impossible to recommend one island over the other. We suggest a visit to several islands in order to enjoy the variety and different attractions which they have to offer. However, if you are on a time limit, it is highly recommended to visit fewer of them and explore those that you choose in detail.

Ferry Duration

Most passes include the use of a standard ferry which can sometimes take a long time due to the distances between the islands (See map page 8-9). Please note that should you wish to reduce travelling time, we allow an upgrade to better seats or to a hydrofoil or a flight at an extra cost.

Islands Transfers

In order to satisfy the budget conscious, we have not included transfers on the Islands with passes 1-11. However we strongly recommend adding them in your package as it is sometimes extremely difficult and at times impossible to find public transport or taxis, especially during peak season. Street names are not used on many of the islands and it can prove to be a challenge to locate some hotels.

Athens Stay

As ferries to the islands usually leave early morning, arriving one day prior is essential. Accommodation in Athens is not included in Pass 1-11, however can be added. Please refer to a large selection of recommended hotels (page 12-16). Additionally, most ferries arrive back to Athens in the evening, hence arranging post night is also recommended. For those who wish to connect with flight out of Athens on the same day as their departure from the island, we suggest upgrading to a flight.

Island Hopping FlexiPasses

FlexiPasses are based on total number of night regardless of islands visited. You can spend as long as you wish on each island and visit as many as you wish. For example if you wish to spend 12 nights on the Greek Islands and you choose 4 islands you can spend 3 on each or choose only 3 islands and spend 3 on one, 4 on the other and 5 on the favourite one. The cost will remain the same. The cost is based on min 3 nights on each island, if less the cost may change. Unlike the other island hopping programs on offer, FlexiPass take advantage of our group buying power and last minute hotel deals. As we rely on special deals we are unable to nominate the specific hotel at the time of booking. Our local representative will provide the hotel name the night prior to your stay. You can choose between four categories of hotels depending on your budget. We are happy to provide list of hotels used for each category to give you indication of hotels used but with his passes we cannot guarantee specific hotels or location as similar hotels may be used. The hotels have been selected for their location, friendliness, quality of service and value for money and understanding of needs of Australian travellers.

Would you like to visit several different Greek Islands but only have limited time at your disposal? If you are keen to see as much as possible without moving locations every single day, a cruise is the way to go for you. It is the most convenient and comfortable way to see a variety of islands and even visit different countries in a short period of time. Your accommodation moves during the night while you get a restful sleep and allows you to wake up in a new and exciting destination every day.

For your convenience, we have created several packages over the next few pages (59-65) that combine Athens with different cruise itineraries throughout the Greek Islands and other parts of the Mediterranean. We also created some itineraries that let you cruise as well as stay few nights on the island so you can experience both. Should you wish to extend any of these packages or include different destinations, please do not hesitate to contact our office for further information.

Large Selection of Programs

On the following pages we present programs that combine cruise with other services as well cruise itineraries only of the following cruise companies: Celestyal Cruises, Variety Cruises and Star Clipper. Most of the cruises start in Athens and visit many locations around Greece and Turkey in relatively short period of time and they offer various itineraries and departure days. As not every traveller follows the same path when they travel and have different time restrictions, we have on offer a large selection of programs which can be described as:

Cruise combine with Athens

Start your amazing holiday through the islands by combining it with a stay in Athens, soak up the history of this amazing city with a day tour to take in the sites and then be transferred to the port for your cruise adventures to the islands. Please refer to our separate brochure for itineraries and prices for such tours so you can make the most of your holiday.

Cruise combine with a stay on the islands

If you wish to spend additional time at an island that a cruise passes through then you may wish to choose a package that allows you to get on or off at other port than Athens. For example you can take a cruise to Mykonos, get off, stay in Mykonos to explore the island at your own pace, before re-joining the cruise visit several islands and then disembark in the last port such as Santorini and stay there.

Customised Itinerary

Choose your own path by combining any cruise with other packages or extended stays on islands that you wish to spend more time on. We can ensure that you get the most of your holiday by tailoring a package that fulfils your perfect getaway. All cruises featured in our brochure can be combined with Athens stay, mainland coach tours or other additional services. We can also book a shore excursions and island stay extensions.

Variety of Cabins

While most packages are costed using Inside cabins, we offer options to upgrade to a different cabin. Most cruise vessels offer a wide variety of cabins varying in location, size and facilities. Please contact us for details.

Santorini

Santorini is the place to fall in love! It's an island that has inspired poets and musicians with its breath taking sunsets and crystal waters rippling over the Caldera. With its whitewashed houses, blue-domed churches and never-ending vineyards, Santorini is Greece at its traditional best.

Some theories state that Santorini was once part of the fabled lost continent of Atlantis - a fact which has provided inspiration to great many artists and writers. The black shining pebbles, the bizarre-looking land formations and the black, white and red sands all form to create unforgettable scenery. As evening approaches couples head to the beautiful town of Oia to secure their own romantic candle-lit table and watch the brilliant sun sink beneath the shimmering Aegean Sea. Unforgettable!

How to get to Santorini

From Athens:

- FERRY - from Piraeus Port - 10 hrs: Daily
- HYDROFOILS - from Piraeus Port - 5 hrs: Daily in summer only
- AIR - 55min Few times a day

Connection to other islands:

- FERRY - to Ios (1hr), Naxos (3hrs), Paros (4hrs), Syros (5hrs) - Daily.
- To Rhodes - 3 times a week overnight (7hrs)
- HYDROFOILS - same as ferry but takes half the time. Sometimes change at other island required. Also to Mykonos (3hrs), Heraklion (2hrs) - Daily

General Information

- Port: 10km from town
- Airport: 7km from town
- Oia: 12km from Fira
- Beaches: Distances from Fira - Kamari (8km), Perissa (10km)
- Main Town: Fira (Thira)
- Main Archaeological Site: Akrotiri

Must See:

Santorini is famous for its spectacular sunset. It is this view as well as narrow cobbled streets, traditional houses and numerous white churches with blue bells that attract large number of visitors. Take a sailing trip around volcano and swim in the warm waters created by the hot springs on the sea bed. Or visit one of the museums on the island. Visit Oia and discover the charm of well-preserved captain houses, the wonderful view of the castle, and Ammoudi with its picturesque small tavernas or Akrotiri excavations. There are also the famous donkey rides zigzagging down the cliff. For the faint hearted there is the easier, but equally breathtaking option of the cable ride down the cliff.

Location! Location! Location!

Due to the unique shape and landscape of the island and the lack of street names there are some loose terms used by hoteliers and online booking engines to describe hotels and their location. The island itself is fairly long and narrow with two distinctive sides. On one side are towns and villages on the edge of the Caldera, on the other are black volcanic sandy beaches. Although certain hotels on both sides offer sea views, the view is significantly different and usually defines the hotel cost. The most sought after hotels are located on the side of the cliff facing the volcano and offer Caldera views. The most desirable location is prestigious Oia but also Fira (Thira) and nearby areas of Firostefani and Imerovigli, due to convenience for shopping, nightlife and restaurants. It is important to know that some hotels with Oia, Fira or Imerovigli address are actually located 2 to 5 km from the village.

Recommended Hotels:

Due to limited brochure space on following pages we present a selection of our recommended hotels in each category. Some properties on the islands are usually described online as hotels while others are villas. There is a large number of rooms scattered throughout the village without a common area, reception or pool which often are called hotels. Hence names and descriptions can be misleading. Villas are not necessarily self-standing houses but just room types. Websites or even some brochures don't always give an accurate description of the properties, nor will they necessarily provide information regarding its actual view or distances.

At Greece and Mediterranean Travel Centre we pride ourselves on accurately describing the type and location of the properties we use, so you are assured of getting what is right for your needs. Please select from our recommended selection or contact us for more options. If you are unable or unwilling to climb dozens of stairs, we can recommend a suitable property for you.

Mykonos

Mykonos has long been one of the most popular destinations in the Greek islands. A cosmopolitan city with a touch of glamour, but still holding on to many of the Greek traditions. Admire the windmills perched atop the small hill and, get lost amongst the small and maze-like streets and white buildings, shop till your heart's content in some of the most creative shops, glittering with gold and silver. Or perhaps take that day trip to Delos, once the centre of Greek religion, art and commerce. Whatever the reason for your visit, Mykonos is sure to please.

How to Get to Mykonos

From Athens:

- FERRY - from Piraeus port - 6 hrs: Daily
- FAST FERRY OR HYDROFOIL - from Piraeus port - 3 hrs: Daily
- AIR - 45min Few times a day

Connection to other islands:

- FERRY - to Paros (2hrs), Syros (2hrs), Naxos (3hrs), Ios (5hrs), daily in peak season.
- HYDROFOILS - Twice as fast as ferries but takes half the time. Also to Santorini (3hrs)

General Information

- Port - Two ports. One approx. 800m from town, the second 2km from town. Various ferries operate from either.
- Airport - 4km from town
- Beaches - Distance from town to Plati Yialos 4km, Ornos 3km,
- Agios Stefanos 4km.

Must See:

The famous windmills overlooking Mykonos town and below them, the region of Little Venice which is also famous for its restaurants. The Paraportiani -the famous church located in town is the most photographed monument on the island. One of the many beaches around the island, some with famous outdoor bars and clubs. Paradise beach & Super Paradise in particular one of the most popular, particularly for under 30's.

Recommended Hotels:

Due to limited brochure space on following pages we present the selection of our recommended hotels in each category. Please keep in mind that some properties on the islands are usually described on websites as hotels while others describe themselves as villas. Only some villas are self-standing houses but they are usually not centrally located, more expensive than hotels and are recommended for long stay. Most websites and some brochures don't always give an accurate description of the properties and their suitability to individual needs. The hotel which is perfect for a gay couple may not be suitable for a family. We At Greece and Mediterranean Travel Centre we know and support local Myconian families and pride ourselves on accurately describing the type and location of the properties we use, so you are assured of getting what is right for your needs. Please select from our recommended selection of contact us for more options.

Location! Location! Location!

It is important to know that there are some loose terms used by hoteliers. For those interested in the nightlife, the town is the preferred location, although it can be busy, especially in the peak season. Hotels in town are usually significantly more expensive than the one further away and generally popular with young clients. There is no beach in Mykonos town and only a few small beaches nearby. Those who prefer quite, more traditional Greek island experience we recommend the beach location of Plati Yialos, Ornos, or Ag. Yiannis, most of them mere 4 or 5 km distance from town. It is in these areas which most mature clients prefer to stay in as the facilities tend to be more affordable, more luxurious and there is regular public transportation available to town. Elia beach is located 9km from town but is considered one of the nicest beaches of the island and our recommended hotels there offer free shuttle bus to town.

Mykonos Day Tours

Although most people think of Mykonos as sun, beach and party destination, there are many other awesome things to do and places to explore. The famous Panagia Portiani Church, the Little Venice and the Windmills and trip to nearby Delos are absolute must. Select from the regular tours on offer or contact us for the customised and private tours.
